

GLOSSARY

List of Abbreviations and Terms

American northwest	Refers to the post-1800 geographic area formerly encompassed by the Northwest Territory.
DOW	Died of wounds.
4th U.S.	An Arabic numeral followed by "U.S." denotes a United States Army Infantry Regiment. This example is for the 4th U.S. Infantry Regiment
IN militia	Indiana militia. The state or type of militia unit by function (KY militia, dragoon, mounted riflemen, etc.) is designated to prevent confusion. It was common at the time to refer to a unit in formal and informal writing by the commander's name. For example, the company of mounted riflemen commanded by Captain Spencer is referred to as Captain Spier Spencer's Company of Mounted Riflemen of the Indiana Militia. Other units might be referred to by simply the commander's name, for example, Robb's company. In cases where the type of unit is not clear, clarifying remarks are added: Robb's company (IN militia).
KIA	Killed in action.
New Purchase	Geographic area defined in the 1809 Treaty of Fort Wayne.
Northwest Territory	Geographic area in the United States defined by the Northwest Ordinance of 1787. The area encompassed current-day Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, and part of Minnesota. The area began to be divided into territories and states after 1800. The status of the various geographic areas in the Northwest Territory continued to change until they became states.
Old Northwest	See American northwest.
Seventeen Fires	The United States.
